Dear Friends:

Welcome to the fall edition of the Camden County Library System newsletter!

I hope your family had an enjoyable summer. Now that the summer is ending and fall is near you may be looking for some indoor fun. I invite you to stop in your nearest Camden County Library branch for an exciting, learning experience!

The library has something for everyone (toddlers to adults). This season the library will bring nature, science and history to a branch near you. If you’re interested in wildlife you will have the opportunity to learn all about some amazing creatures and ways to protect them. And if science and creativity is more of your thing, the library is the place to come explore, experiment and discover with Legos, slime, dry ice and more! Do you have a love for history? If you answered yes, you will be delighted by the excitement of the roaring twenties, the Edwardian era and even some Weird NJ history.

A visit to your local branch of the Camden County Library System will keep the good times rolling all year long.

Ian K. Leonard, Freeholder Liaison

September is library card sign up month, and there has never been a better time to get one. Benefits of having a library card include access to our digital collections, such as e-books, digital magazines and streaming video. Your card also allows you to enjoy our new museum pass program. Check out a pass at any of our eight branches and visit nearby museums and nature centers with no admission charge.

With the fall season comes the start of another school year which means homework! By visiting our website you can get the homework help you need. Log onto Tutor.com and receive live homework help in subjects like math, English, social studies and writing. Tutor.com also often helps with navigating a job search, writing a resume, preparing for an interview or applying for jobs online.

If you are looking for some good reads for those cool autumn evenings, stop at our annual giant fall book sale, to be held at the Vogelson Branch on October 16, 17, and 18.

Look for our colorful new van while you are out and about this fall!

Two CCLS Librarians Honored and Recognized by NJLA in June

Two Camden County librarians were honored by the New Jersey Library Association during its annual conference in June at Revel in Atlantic City.

Emily Moore, Head of Youth Services at the Vogelson Branch of the Camden County Library System in Voorhees received the NJLA Rising Star Award on June 3. The Rising Star Award is given to librarians with less than five years of experience who demonstrate great promise, potential, innovation and creativity.

An example of Emily’s work is how she organized a very successful Big Play Date in late March for children, parents and other caregivers. With the help of the Voorhees Regional Library’s staff and others, the program effectively showed how caregivers can use simple, everyday-items around the house to play and interact with their children in a meaningful way. The program was attended by over 200 children, parents and other caregivers.

Candace Worrell, Librarian at the South County Branch of the Camden County Library System in Winslow Township, was presented with the NJLA Best Practices in Early Literacy Award on June 4.

Candace’s Sensory Story Time is one of four programs statewide selected to receive a $1,000 grant to be used for literacy programming.

The Children’s Librarian regularly runs creative programs at the branch in Winslow Twp. such as Bouncing Babies and Books, Milk and Cookies Story Time and a Pooh Party to celebrate the birthday of the beloved children’s story book character Winnie the Pooh, all scheduled this summer.

System Wide Programs for Adults this Fall!

Those Were the Days

Go back in time to the upstairs/downstairs society of the Edwardian era, the roaring times of the 1920s and the life and times of Lizzie Borden. Also explore the weird and wonderful in New Jersey. What a journey!

“Life at an Edwardian Manor” Inspired by Downton Abbey
Presented by Judith Kroll-Ruoso
The Edwardian era was a “golden age” for wealthy aristocrats living in huge manor houses, who reveled in luxury, leisure and extravagant entertaining. The lower class of domestic servants fulfilled the needs and whims of their rich employers. The winds of change brought a time of greater social mobility within the rigid British class system.

September is Library Card Sign Up Month!

Give the Gift of Reading to Kids this Holiday Season

Please donate books at any branch from November 8 thru December 6

Each year we ask our customers to donate new and gently-used books to our Books for Kids Holiday Campaign.

You can help foster and develop a love of reading for too many children in Camden County who don’t have enough books at home. Books of their own to read, keep and read again and again.

It’s easy. Just drop off your donation(s) at any one of our branch library locations - Bellmawr, Haddonfield, Merchantville, Nika L. Cruz Perez Downtown Branch (Camden), South County (Winslow Twp.) and Voorhees.

All books collected will be distributed by the Camden County Children’s Services Department to children in need who live throughout the county in time for the holidays. Knowing the importance of literacy, a donated children’s book truly is a gift that keeps on giving.

Museum Pass Program

The Camden County Library System is now offering a pass program for nearby museums and nature centers. You can check out one pass at a time at any of our eight Sculpture, Morris Arboretum, Wheaton Arts or Woodford Wildlife Refuge. Passes to the Guggenheim, Penn Museum of Archaeology, Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts, or Roebling Museum are available at the Vogelson Branch only.

Call your library for more details and information, or visit us at www.camdencountylibrary.org.

Your Library Card... the most important school supply of all!

Give the Gift of Reading to Kids this Holiday Season

Please donate books at any branch from November 8 thru December 6

Each year we ask our customers to donate new and gently-used books to our Books for Kids Holiday Campaign. You can help foster and develop a love of reading for too many children in Camden County who don’t have enough books at home, books of their own to read, keep and read again and again.

It’s easy. Just drop off your donation(s) at any one of our branch library locations: Bellmawr, Pennsauken, Newfield, Sewell, and Voorhees.

All books collected will be distributed by the Camden County Children’s Services Department to children in need who live throughout the county in time for the holidays. Knowing the importance of literacy, a donated children’s book truly is a gift that keeps on giving.

Museum Pass Program

The Camden County Library System is now offering a pass program for nearby museums and nature centers. You can check out one pass at a time at any of our eight locations: Garden State Discovery Museum, Morris Arboretum, Wheaton Arts, Woodford Wildlife Refuge, Guggenheim, Penn Museum of Archaeology, Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts, or Roebling Museum.

Passes to the Guggenheim, Penn Museum of Archaeology, Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts, or Roebling Museum are available at the Vogelson Branch only. Call your library for more details and information, or visit us at www.camdencountylibrary.org.

Two CCLS Librarians Honored and Recognized by NJ LA in June

Two Camden County librarians were honored by the New Jersey Library Association during its annual conference in June at Revel in Atlantic City.

Emily Moore, Head of Youth Services at the Vogelson Branch of the Camden County Library System in Voorhees received the NJ LA Rising Star Award on June 3. The Rising Star Award is given to librarians with less than five years of experience who demonstrate great promise, potential, innovation and creativity.

An example of Emily’s work is how she organized a very successful Big Play Date in late March for children, parents and other caregivers. With the help of the Voorhees Regional Library’s staff and others, the program effectively showed how caregivers can use simple, everyday-items around the house to play and interact with their children in a meaningful way. The program was attended by over 200 children, parents and other caregivers.

Candace Worrell, Librarian at the South County Branch of the Camden County Library System in Winslow Township, was presented with the NJ LA Best Practices in Early Literacy Award on June 4.

Candace’s Sensory Story Time is one of four programs statewide selected to receive a $1,000 grant to be used for literacy programming. The Children’s Librarian regularly runs creative programs at the branch in Winslow Twp. such as Bouncing Babies and Books, Milk and Cookies Story Time and a Pooh Party to celebrate the birthday of the beloved children’s story book character Winnie the Pooh, all scheduled this summer.

System Wide Programs for Adults this Fall!

Those Were the Days
Go back in time to the upstairs/downstairs society of the Edwardian era, the roaring times of the 1920s and the life and times of Lizzie Borden. Also explore the weird and wonderful in New Jersey. What a journey!

“Life at an Edwardian Manor” Inspired by Downton Abbey
Presented by Judith Kral-Rufo
The Edwardian era was a “golden age” for wealthy aristocrats living in huge manor houses, who reveled in luxury, leisure and extravagant entertaining. The lower class of domestic servants fulfilled the needs and whims of their rich employers. The winds of change brought a time of greater social mobility within the rigid British class system.

South County: Saturday, October 26, 11 a.m.
Voorhees: Saturday, October 26, 2 p.m.

10 Astounding Actions Earning a Medal of Honor (NJ)
The Medal of Honor is the highest military decoration awarded by the United States government. Hear the tales of heroism and courage exhibited by some of the New Jerseyans who have earned this honor.

Bellmawr: Monday, November 10, 7 p.m.

Infamous Women of History
Presented by Kate Butler from Decolique
“My Name is Lizzie” presents a brief life history of accused murderess Lizzie Borden and events leading up to the “tragedy” in the sweltering summer heat of 1892. Facts of the case from court transcripts and newspaper accounts will be explored as well as the complex figure of Lizzie herself. Select costumes and accessories of the late Victorian era will also be on display.

Merchantville: Wednesday, October 8, 6:30 p.m.

More Tales of the Weird and Strange in NJ
Even more oddities in New Jersey!
Gloucester Township: Tuesday, November 18, 7 p.m.

Prohibition and the Fashion of the Roaring Twenties
Presented by Kate Butler from Decolique
The times influence our culture and style. See how Prohibition and the carefree days of the Great Gatsby era changed how we dressed. During this exciting time in history, women, who were finally granted the right to vote in 1920, shed the confining skirts and corsets that literally ‘kept them tied’ to home and hearth. Historian Kate Butler will bring a wide variety of clothing, accessories, and original photography for your enjoyment.

Gloucester Township: Tuesday, September 23, 7 p.m.
South County: Thursday, October 2, 7 p.m.
Haddon Township: Wednesday, November 5, 7 p.m.

Dear Friends:

Welcome to the fall edition of the Camden County Library System newsletter!

I hope your family had an enjoyable summer. Now that the summer is ending and fall is near you may be looking for some indoor fun. I invite you to stop in your nearest Camden County Library branch for an exciting, learning experience!

The library has something for everyone (toddlers to adults). This season the library will bring nature, science and history to a branch near you. If you’re interested in wildlife you will have the opportunity to learn all about some amazing creatures and ways to protect them. And if science and creativity is more of your thing, the library is the place to come explore, experiment and discover with Legos, slime, dry ice and more! Do you have a love for history? If you answered yes, you will be delighted by the excitement of the roaring twenties, the Edwardian era and even some Weird NJ history.

A visit to your local branch of the Camden County Library System will keep the good times rolling all year long.
